The Standard AND RIVER PLATE NEWS.

No. 1875—Eighth Year. BUENOS AYRES, FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1868. Circulation 2500

MAUA BANK,
101-103 CALLE CANGALLO

The offices of this Bank having been removed to the above spacious building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie in this Bank:—

First—Bills and obligations with good signatures are discounted on conventional terms.

Second—Money is advanced on mercantile and other securities approved of by the Manager.

Third—Accounts current are opened with Merchants or other parties who may prefer depositing endorsed and transferable securities, against which they may draw up to an amount previously convened under conditions established for such class of operations.

Fourth—Money is received in account current, bearing interest from day of deposit, which is accumulated in favor of the parties every three months, the depositors being allowed to retire at any time, by means of checques, part or the full amount at their wish, save when the quantity exceeds three hundred doubloons or one hundred thousand dollars currency, in which case forty-eight hours' previous notice is required to be given at the Treasury of the Bank.

Fifth—Bills or letters of credit are drawn and taken on Montevideo, Rosario, Sta Fé, Salto Oriental, Paysandu, Rio Janeiro, and other places in the Brazils, England and France, as also on other places, of which notice will be given hereafter.

Finally, the Bank undertakes and executes all legitimate transactions within the orbit of banking operations.

The establishment is always open from 9 a.m. till 3 p.m.

The Company insures against loss or Damage by Fire Private Dwelling-Houses, Goods Deposited in Specific Warehouses of Stone or Brick, &c., &c.; and also issues "Floating Policies," extending to the Custom-House and all or any of the Private and Bonded Stores.

The whole advantages which can possibly be contemplated by those desiring to effect Fire Insurances, may be resolved into the following:—

1st. Security.
2nd. Honor and liberality on the part of the Company, in whose hands they place their interest; and
3rd. The purchase of these advantages at a moderate rate.

It will be found that all these are presented by this Company to the Public in an eminent degree.

The Company's large Capital, under the immediate management of the Directors of this Establishment, affords perfect security to the Assured, while it may confidently assert, from the Constitution of the Board of Direction, from the character of its present Members, and from the qualifications which will be deemed indispensable in their successors, that the highest honor and liberality will ever characterize all its transactions.

It has been the object of the Directors, in their minor arrangements, to afford every possible facility to those effecting Assurances with the Alliance, and the undersigned hold a Power of Attorney enabling them to settle at once any Losses that may occur from Fire, Lightning, or Explosions of Gas in Buildings, on or in which this Company has granted Assurances.

2,000 for North America, 60rls. 10 cents. estilo antigui.

OUR EIGHTH YEAR.

To-day, gentle readers, the STANDARD enters on its eighth year, and in saluting our subscribers and the foreign public on so auspicious an occasion, we seize the opportunity to say a word for ourselves.

We have Hoe-d through the past year, cut down some abuses, and extirpated some noxious weeds, with a success far less attributable to our own poor talents than to the growing power of foreign public opinion in Buenos Ayres; and if, as we glance over the file of the past twelve months, we struggle with emotions at the long list of subscribers and friends, who perished during the cholera at least we find consolation in the fact that the despotism of prejudice, ignorance, and obsolete customs, is yielding to the onward march of the great power, of which we claim to be the exponent.

Notwithstanding the various advances made to us, and, in a measure, the private influences brought to bear, we have steered clear of local politics, never, under any pretext, compromising foreign opinion, beyond a friendly and liberal support to the Powers that be. Editors are, after all, but human beings, and the highest discharge of the trust which the Public reposes in them, is the untrammelled expression of opinion and the independent enunciation of public sentiment. On this point we are willing to stand by the verdict of our cosmopolitan readers. We have never wavered in the least, possibly had we put our shoulder to the wheel, and thrown the weight and influence of foreign opinion into the Presidential election scale we might ere this have settled the question; but we felt that this is not our mission, and the wiliest politician in the River Plate, the most attentive reader of our columns, is at a loss to say who, of all the various candidates in the field, enjoys the support of the STANDARD.

The year 1867 will long be remembered as the most disastrous in River Plate annals. We ourselves have had our sorrows, and passed for a while under very dark clouds. So intimately connected is a newspaper with its public that, whether in affliction or prosperity, their interests are the same. Goaded by the awfully neglected state of the city, and the terrible mortality during the early part of last December, we for once in our editorial career forgot our vocation and figured in a movement which led to the dethronement of some municipal nincompoops. In other times, and under other circumstances, we would have eschewed the assumption of such responsibility, but, tired out attending funerals of subscribers, and sick at heart to see the conceited usurpation of authority by the most incompetent, we followed in the wake of public opinion, and freed the town from bondage. We point now to a newly whitewashed city—to water-works under process of construction, to capacious vasura carts and an improved system of the burial of the poor, as the result of that movement, which even from some of our best friends drew down on us censure. During the prevalence of the epidemic we succeeded in one day in having five millions of dead fish covered up and buried. We stopped the infamous practice of fishing in front of the mole, and, when the plague extended to the camp districts, we shook the Government House to its foundation until doctors and apothecaries by the dozen were despatched to the various towns in the country.

Proud are we therefore to think that with all our faults (which are too often thrown in our face by critics of every calibre), the past year has not been a sterile 12 months, the STANDARD has truthfully and honestly played its part, and besides catering to the varied tastes in selecting and distributing the most agreeable food for our reading public, we have achieved reforms which eventually must add ten years to the lives of our subscribers.

In a country like this it is impossible to fill the columns of a morning paper with all that can please the taste and delight the mind; news of the most varied character and color has to be published, but we do our best to make the STANDARD as sprightly and as lively as possible, and spare no expense in the way of correspondents to keep our readers "au courant" not only with the movements of the war, but with all matters of real interest in this Republic, Montevideo, Rio and Europe. At a no inconsiderable outlay we print with the very best American types and on the best English printing paper. Our operative staff is second to none in the River Plate, and since the departure of our brother editor for Europe, and during the long and tedious months of a miserable rheumatic fever we secured the higest and best literary talent that Buenos Ayres could afford. Although fully conscious of our readers' sympathies, we work so hard, and toil so incessantly with no other aim than that of serving and being useful to our public, that we feel we merit the success which after seven long years we have achieved. Our subscription list to-day, notwithstanding the number of subscribers who died of cholera or left the country, shows an increase on that of last year: in point of circulation we rank second to the "Tribuna."

Directed by principle, and guided by common sense, a newspaper can in its own way effect much good; society can well afford to maintain and support such organs; and indeed, in the present age, we think we are justified in saying that a newspaper is as indispensable to its own public as canvass to a picture.

Like the ivy round the oak, a newspaper is nothing until it finds a stouter stem to climb and lean upon. Journals have no real strength or substance of their own, but when once firmly entwined, when linked with the wants, the wishes, and the requirements of a community, they acquire real vigour, becoming of lasting importance, and surviving the throes which too often commove the society upon which they lean and to which they in their turn impart support. The STANDARD is no exception to this rule: we have crept, and still creep, but we for ever point upwards.

THE STANDARD ABROAD.

BELGIUM—ITS TOWNS AND PEOPLE.

Brussels, March 20, 1868.

I started from London by the first train on Sunday morning for Dover—having been all night in the train from Holyhead. The suburbs of the great city looked to much advantage; so did the smiling farms of the southern countries; and, after a flying view of Canterbury and towns of lesser note, we found ourselves on the Dover pier. This is perhaps the finest wharf in Europe, built of granite, and running far out into the sea. The steamers plying to Calais are small, dirty, and uncomfortable. Most of the passengers were French. I was agreeably surprised to meet Mr. Eggers, of Buenos Ayres, who was en route for Paris; I should never have recognised him but that he happened to be reading the "Standard." At Calais there is a good 'buffet,' but the charges are, of course, exorbitant.

The north-east part of France is flat and uninteresting, and there is nothing to call the traveller's attention till passing St. Omer, celebrated for its English College, where Daniel O'Connell and so many of his countrymen were educated during the penal times. The city of Lille, with its manufacturies of tobacco, sugar, and linen, is an important place, giving employment to 7,000 operatives, whose labour yields a return of more than a million pounds sterling per annum. We next reach the village of Blandain, on the Belgian frontier, where luggage is examined; and now we are in Belgium, the country which successfully rivals England in many of her staple articles of manufacture. The industry of the Belgians has converted an arid, sandy soil into a beautiful garden, while their cities are so many bustling centres of manufactures. I have visited Brussels, Ghent, Antwerp, Bruges, Malines, Louvain, and Veroiers—and everywhere the same earnest love of labor is the prevailing genius of the people. Even the dogs in this country are turned to great use; you see hundreds of them in harness in the various cities, doing as much work as horses in other countries.

The general appearance of Belgium is flat, with not an inch of waste ground, or even pasture lands. The whole is beautifully cultivated, intersected with numerous canals, and provided with well-paved roads; the canals and roads are lined with double rows of trees,, producing a very pleasant effect. Even the farm houses of the peasantry are neat and comfortable, and the people are all well clad, presenting a striking contrast with the condition of the people in Ireland, although the climate and soil of the two countries are similar. The railway system in Belgium is admirable, and the fares exceptionally cheap, while the accommodation is much better than in England. The hotels are better than the French, but also a little dearer.

The architecture of the old Flemish towns is exceedingly quaint, and sometimes ludicrous; the churches are grand and enriched with the chefs d'œuvres of Rubens, Vandyck, &c. The town-halls are the finest in Europe, of vast dimensions, and finished in a high style of ornamentation, with unrivalled statuary and carvings. It is also worth visiting this country, if only to see the tasteful lace-caps of the market-women; this head-gear is most fantastic, and quite in keeping with the architecture of the houses and public buildings.

All the educated classes speak French, but the burgeoisie and domestics only understand Flemish, at least in the towns of Flanders. The Flemish tongue has a great affinity with English, many words being exactly the same, and others (such as boek-pinder) only slightly varied. The people are very courteous, and have strong predilections for the English.

Brussels is not much like other Belgian towns, but rather 'a little Paris.' I arrived there on Sunday evening, and left next morning for Antwerp, to assist at the inauguration of Tait's new line of steamers, of which I sent you a full report by the City of Brussels.

By next English mail I shall send you a longer despatch. I enclose a photograph card of King Leopold II. and the Royal Family. I am happy to learn that the Empress Charlotte is now quite recovered.

LATEST FROM BRAZIL.

Rio de Janeiro, April 22, 1868.

Since I last wrote to you, very little has occurred worthy of being transmitted to your paper, but I shall, as usual, just give you a summary of the few circumstances which may be interesting to your readers.

Large and daring robberies, committed in our Post Office, having lately come to light through the publicity given to several cases in the daily papers, His Excellency the Minister of Agriculture and Public Works has appointed a commission, formed of Dr. A. J. de Castro Silva and Dr. J. J. dos Reis, to proceed to a rigorous examination of all the Post Office departments.

The Duke of Coburg, brother of H.R.H the Duke of Saxe, who was expected to arrive in the American packet, did not come in the Mississippi, but may do so in the next steamer. H.S.H. was still in Boston, together with the Duke of Penthievre.

Exchange has declined to 19d for bankers drafts, and 19d to 19¼d for private bills on London. On Paris the rates are 495rs. to 500rs. per franc. Sovereigns are selling at 13$ 600 @ 13$ 750. Doubloons at $43. Brazilian 6 per cent. stock, 87½ per cent. Bank of Brazil Shares, $187. Cardiff Coal, $33 per ton.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Villa del Salto, which left yesterday for the Uruguay, took from this a large number of passengers, and among them several Englishmen bound for the races that come off to-day on the Gualeguaychu Race-course. From the number of crack horses that are entered, the meeting is looked forward to with great interest, and although we were unable to avail ourself of the polite invitation sent to us by the Commission, we have made arrangements for being supplied with a full account

The Sociedad Tipografica Bonaerense—in order to give solemnity and 'eclat' to the Inauguration of the Pantheon in the Recoleta, destined exclusively to its members—has solicited and obtained from all the proprietors of printing establishments in this city, that their workmen and employés should be allowed one day's holiday, and purpose to hold a great banquet at Palermo on the occasion, at which several philanthropic societies are to be invited, as well as the National and Provincial authorities. The day fixed, we understand to be next Wednesday, 6th inst,, and as we have, along with all our colleagues, acceded to the request made to us, the 'Standard' will not appear on Thursday next.

Our colleague the Tribuna announces that our esteemed friend Mr. Kirk has been re-named American Minister to this Republic. As far as we can learn there is nothing certain known in the matter. People who ought to know all that transpires at Washington assured us in Montevideo that the appointment of, to latest dates, had not yet been made.

Letters from the son of Col. Sandes have been received this mail from the United States. Colonel Sandes was a noted Argentine chief, and figured principally in the war with the Chacho. His son has, at the public expense, been sent to the States to be educated, and is now able to write tolerably good English.

The Estrella, from Rosario, arrived yesterday at the Tigre at 12 o'clock. A telegram was shortly after received by the agent. She brought 80 passengers, but her mails were not at the Post-office at half-past three o'clock.

The steamboat agents it seems no longer give through tickets on the Northern Railway. Passengers must buy their own tickets at the Station as per notice duly published.

Yesterday there were some strange rumors current about increased activity in the War-office, caused by despatches received direct by 'chasque' from Tucuman. As yet there is little known in the matter, as it is held up as a sort of state secret, but some of the officers in town expect each moment to be called into active service, as a flare up with Taboada is mooted, all of course due to the Presidential elections. When shall we get done with this bugbear.

The total amount disbursed by the Provincial government in paying off cholera claims, we hear foots up to millions, nearly all the country bills have been sent in and will be shortly published. We believe the Government never concluded the purchase of the great Spanish hospital at the top of the Buen Orden hill it is now nearly finished and it is every way worthy of being a public institution, but the price asked, we hear, is enormous, and the cholera bills already paid have been very heavy, still the Government have a sufficient sum left out of what it received from the Bank to buy the place, if terms could be arranged.

We may well say that we have got the sword and pen at work now. To-day Col. Mansilla's new paper La Patria starts into existence, we salute our new colleague with a polite bow and wish him well, but we suppose the journal is merely started for electioneering purposes.

The last news from Frayle Muerto is of rather an unfavorable character, the mutiny of the troops spoken of, has been confirmed, but it appears that the Cordova Governmen sent troops in time to protect the place from the mutinous soldiers.

We regret to say that another forcible jail delivery has taken place at Rosario, the whole system of criminal procedure in this country is at best but a farce, but it seems utterly impossible to effect any reform. "Tot homines quot sententiæ."

As we are aware that a great number of people are turning their attention to agricultural pursuits and the tillage of land, we can confidently recommend to them to use for their seed the class of wheat lately introduced into the country and known by the name of Marianopolis, which comes from Southern Italy. It can compete—and even excel—the renowned Barleta wheat. Don Ramon Torres, broker in this article, at the Plaza 11 Setiembre, sold some yesterday in beautiful condition at $270 the fanega.

In the Plazas yesterday business in dry hides and good wools was very active, and of the latter article the stock is still considerable. In hay in bales the transactions yesterday were also very extensive, and the active demand for this article for the seat of war causes large remittances from distant parts of the camp by railway—and prices keep firm from 500 to 800 according to quality and condition.

The great complaints made to the south of Chascomus of the difficulty of transport by carreta, the freights having increased in price to an unprecedented and ruinous figure, call for the serious attention of the Southern Railway Company and of the Government to the great necessity of prolonging, at any sacrifice, that important artery of the almost unexplored wealth of the South.

In the reproduction published in our Sunday's issue of a letter signed E. which appeared in the "Tribuna" of Montevideo in answer to Baron Mauá's essay on the question of forced currency, a misprint occurs towards the end of the article which greatly alters the sense and which we hasten to rectify; instead of "the country will at least have the use, &c." read "the country will thus lose the use, &c." A second letter by the same pen in continuation of the above will shortly see the public light—and the pamphlet with all the papers has been promised to us as soon as out.

An unmerited attack appeared yesterday in one of our contemporaries against the manager of the Northern Railway, on account of his having refused the renewal of a contract with the agencies of steamers leaving the Tigre by which a large reduction made by the company of the fares for passengers to the Tigre enabled said agencies to include in their tickets the railway fare. In justice to the able manager of this railway we beg to state that the agencies in question refused to listen to his proposal of a moderate reduction, because, by the present arrangement, they are considerable gainers, and surely the well-known financial difficulties of the Northern Railway Company make it incumbent upon the manager to be just before he is generous.

The fourteen pianos, under the able leadership of Mr. Gottschalk, attracted, as was to have been expected, a full house to Colon on Wednesday night, although there was not quite so great a rush as on the previous Monday. The performance, however, was if possible surpassed on the second night, and general regret is felt at Mr. Gottschalk's resolution that it should be his last appearance before our public, and strong hopes are entertained that he may yet change it.

We were favoured yesterday with a kind invitation from Captain Haddock to visit the City of Brussels in company with a select party of his friends, but were unavoidably debarred from joining the convivial throng. This splendid steamer sails on her homeward voyage to-day, and as the Beauty is advertised to ply between the Mole-head and the outer roads for the convenience of passengers, we will endeavour to go and shake hands with our gallant friend before he leaves these waters.

THE AUNIS MAILS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Mr. Gladstone's declaration as to the Irish Church was the subject of universal comment. His opinions on the subject were of slow but of steady growth; and the solemnity and earnestness with which he pronounced them have impressed the House with the profoundness of the convictions that suggested so definite, so decisive, and so resolute a course. Those who get within the charmed circles of Cabinets that are, Cabinets that were, and Cabinets that are to be, speak of the perfect unity of sentiment that prevails amongst the leading men on the front Opposition benches, and of the vigour with which they will all throw themselves into the great struggle for religious equity. Earl Russell and Mr. Gladstone had a long interview on Tuesday, and, though the Times complains that Mr. Gladstone was not very complimentary to Lord Russell's plan in the few sharp and decisive sentences in which he flung aside the proposal in the ex-Premier's pamphlet for an equitable redistribution of the Church funds, there is reason to believe that Earl Russell has yielded to the atmosphere that surrounds him, and acceded to the idea of voluntaryism as applicable to the present state of Ireland. Mr. Gladstone took his stand for the first time on the voluntary principle, and flung aside all attempts to bribe the Catholic Clergy as vain and futile, for they will not, and cannot, be purchased into the abandonment of principle. It is now definitely arranged that the question passes from below to above the gangway, and takes henceforth the status of a Cabinet question. The scrupulous and prudent course of Mr. Gladstone on this question is beyond all praise. He himself details the gradations by which he attained step by step to his present advanced position. First—"I could not vote for the motion of my hon. friend the member for Stroud in 1865, because it was too vague, and the opinion of the country was not advanced enough for a definite proposal." Second—"I declined to vote when in office or when out of office with my hon. friend the member for Kilkenny, because to do so would be to give a pledge that Parliament would take immediate action, and that pledge we might not be in a position to redeem." Third—"The time has, however, now come when the Irish Church Establishment must cease to exist—the scandal must be removed." His speech shows that deeds not words is his motto now. At least thirty members tried again and again to speak. The Speaker, anxious to meet the wishes of all, publicly suggested ten minute-speeches, and one "ten minute" speaker spoke for an hour and fifty minutes; another, who promised to be under twelve, spoke for fifty-eight minutes, while two only kept within the publicly-suggested limits. Mr. Cogan rose three times, Sir Patrick O'Brien, Sir J. Gray, Mr. Pim, Mr. Kennedy and about twenty others tried, but gave up, as the hour of ten approached, for at that hour Mr. Gladstone undertook to rise. The debate was a great success in the sense that it has elicited early in the session the Irish policy of the English people as expressed by the future Premier of the Empire.

The prosecution of William Mackay on the charge of treason-felony commenced in the County Court on Thursday before Mr. Justice O'Hagan and a county jury. Corydon who was elegantly dressed, gave evidence with his usual effrontery, and stated in cross-examination that he expected the modest sum of £3,000 for his services in connection with Fenianism. Constable Browne an his wife identified Mackay as the leader of the party of Fenians who, on the 6th of March, attacked, captured and burned the Police barrack at Ballyknockane. The prisoner was also proved to have been the principle party engaged in the surprise and plunder of the Martello tower at Foaty on the 26th of December. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty of treason-felony, but recommended the prisoner to mercy. The prisoner acknowledged the fairness of his trial and the justness of the verdict, and said had he been convicted, of murder in the former trial, he would not have quarrelled with the decision. Later in the day Mackay was sentenced to twelve years penal servitude.—In an address of some ability he declared himself an unrelenting Fenian, advising the British Government to surrender Ireland to her people without a struggle.

FRANCE.

Some days ago there was a rumour that the Emperor Napoleon contemplated a journey to St. Petersburg. The report of another projected visit is also current—that the Emperor intends to proceed to Berlin to visit King William, and then, in company with his Prussian Majesty, go on to Vienna to pay a visit to the Emperor Francis Joseph. Some consider the visit of Prince Napoleon to Germany as the precursor of the Emperor's. The German press continues to follow his Imperial Highness every step he takes, and every halt he makes—to note down all his movements, and even his gestures; but not a word is reported from him calculated to lead any one to divine the real object of his journey. The Prince's character seems to have changed; instead of being frank, outspoken, and even occasionally imprudent, he has all at once become as mute and impenetrable as a diplomatist of the old school.

ITALY.

In the course of a recent debate on the multure tax, Count Cambray Digny said that in his financial statement he had declared that the deficit at the end of the current year would be 820,000,000 francs; and that for 1869, unless the new taxes were voted so that Government might begin to levy them at the commencement of the year, it would amount to a further sum of 250,000,000 francs, thus constituting a total deficit of 1,070,000,000 francs. "I have therefore the right to tell you," continued he, "that whoever, for any reason, delays the discussion and voting of the new taxes will make himself responsible for a tremendous financial catastrophe." They had been told that they must retrench. But in three years they had retrenced to the amount of 250,000,000 francs, and they would effect further savings; but the country must not remain under a delusion. As matters now stood retrenchment alone was not sufficient to restore the equilibrium of the finances. The question had been asked why in the matter of new taxes should they insist on commencing with so unpopular an impost as the present one. For that there were two reasons; one that this very tax had been repeatedly proposed, and all its bearings had been already studied by the Chamber. Another reason was that in the depressed condition of Italian credit the voting of a comprehensive tax having a large basis, such as that under discussion, must produce a good effect on the national credit, both at home and abroad; and the more so when it was seen that the representatives of the people did not shrink in the discharge of their duty from imposing a tax even because it was unpopular.

BAVARIA.

Ludwig II. of Bavaria meditates abdication. It is thought he would have taken such a step before this had he not been deterred by the consideration that Bavaria while his grandfather was alive would then have had to maintain three kings. If his intention is carried out, the throne will devolve on his brother Otho, a young man of twenty, who has hitherto paid no attention to politics.

TURKEY.

Fresh disturbances have broken out in Albania. The Mussulmans of Vusinge have attaked the Christians of Sukrili; after casting down their cross, they provoked them to the combat. The struggle was obstinate, and many were killed and wounded on both sides. The Christians, vanquished by reason of their inferior number, took refuge at Ubbi, in the Montenegrin territory; their village was committed to the flames. It appears that they sought to withdraw themselves from the authority of the Mudir and refused to pay taxes; and that several chiefs of the Mountain put forward the same pretensions. The mussulmans seized that circumstance as a pretext for satiating their religious animosities. The Governor Ismail has instituted a severe inquiry and deprived the Mudir of Vusinge, Aly-Bey, of his post. He has also made arrangements to forestall the vengeance and reprisals of the other Christian tribes.

UNITED STATES.

It is now certain that the Republicans are determined to oust President Johnson, if possible. The preliminaries of the great impeachment trial are being rapidly arranged, and the Republicans are bent on pressing it to a speedy conclusion. Seven members of the House have been selected as managers of the impeachment—Thaddeus Stevens, General Butler, John A. Bingham, George S. Boutwell of Massachusetts, James F. Wilson, of Iowa, Thos. Williams, of Pennsylvania, and General Logan. Of these, Stephens, Butler, and Logan are well known. Boutwell has been an ardent impeacher for months past, while Bingham and Wilson, until Stanton's removal was attempted, were as earnestly opposed to it. Williams is an extreme Radical from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and a leading lawyer of the House. On the 29th February the articles of impeachment were reported to the House by Mr. Boutwell and a debate began which was continued until the 2nd of March, fifteen minute speeches being allowed. The articles are nine in number, only the acts in connection with the attempted removal of Stanton being embraced in the charges.

These articles were adopted in the House, on March 2, by a strictly party vote of 126 Republicans to 47 Opposition. As originally reported to the House the articles were ten in number but one of them was so nearly a repetition of the fifth article that it was struck out. Mr. Janckes, of Rhode Island (Republican) unsuccessfully attempted to procure the adoption of an additional article charging the President with an attempt to get control of the military authority of the Government in a mode not in accordance with the Constitution; and General Butler also unsuccessfully tried to secure an additional article with reference to Johnson's "swinging round the circle" in 1866, charging that at various times he did 'make and declare with a loud voice certain intemperate, inflammatory, and scandalous harangues, and did therein utter loud threats and bitter menaces, as well against Congress as the laws of the United States duly enacted thereby, amid the cries, jeers, and laughter of the multitudes then assembled in hearing.'" Both these proposed articles were defeated because it was feared that too much time would be occupied in proving them, and the Republicans are anxious to hurry the trial as much as possible.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

The following minute of proceedings was drawn up and signed at the meeting of Buenos Ayres electors for President, that took place on Tuesday last:—

In Buenos Ayres, on the 28th day of April, the undersigned citizens chosen by the votes of the people to discharge the duties of Electors for President and Vice-President of the Republic, having met in conference declare, that on the day of the election we will give our votes to the citizen Don Domingo F. Sarmiento for the first post, and to the citizen Don Adolfo Alsina for the second; and we moreover agree to invite the electors for this province who have not attended this meeting, to give their adhesion to the above resolution.

In testimony thereof we sign—Jose Uriburu, Julian Fernandez, Alejandro Leloir, José Pacheco, Carlos Casares, Antonino Cambaceres, Luis A. Martinez, Marcelino Ugarte, Esteban Villanueva, Estanislao del Campo, Jorge Stegman, Mariano Atucha, Andres Egaña, Agustin Silveyra, Luis Maria Solé, Avelino Fernandez, Eustoquio

Of the seven remaining electors says the 'Tribuna':—

Sr. Obligado has declared that if before the 12th of June the candidate with whom he sympathyses, whose name has not yet appeared in any part of the Republic, is not brought forward, he will vote for the above combination.

Sr. Terry is seriously ill.

Messrs. Chas and Carranza did not sign, because they objected to the wording of the minute; but they also have declared that they would vote for the above combination.

Sr. Cascallares is absent in the camp, but it is known that he will vote in the same sense.

Only two, Messrs. Peña and O'Gorman, have refused to pledge their votes for anybody.

Thus, of the twenty-eight votes for the Province of Buenos Ayres, twenty-six would appear pledged to vote for the Sarmiento-Alsina ticket.

LATEST FROM CORDOVA.

To the Editors of the "Standard."

Gentlemen,

I am somewhat surprised to find that our new settlement here has appeared to escape your notice and that of the general public. Intending visitors to the neighborhood of Frayle Muerto would do well to give a look at these camps. Situated as we are, to the north of the Carcarañia and the railway line of the Central Argentine Company, there is a formidable barrier protecting us from those pests to the Southern settlers the Indians, enabling us to invest in cattle, for which these camps are admirably adapted, as well as agriculture. My enterprising neighbour, who has already laid the foundation of a very extensive estate, would willingly join me in rendering every assistance in our power to settlers. The camps are well watered, and, I believe, can be purchased or rented on moderate terms, and within easy distance from the Leones station. I should be glad if you will make these facts known to your numerous inquirers.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Yours truly,
F. F.

Sta. Lucia, near Leones Station,
April 12.

BANDA ORIENTAL.

Carmelo, April 27.

When a correspondent has nothing to say, and no time to say it in, he may well be excused for silence. This has been my predicament for sometime back. There is literally nothing stirring. The last murder (would it might be the last!) or the last revolution no longer occupies our thoughts or our tongues, and even the low price of wool, or the desperate aspects of sheep farming business are now subjects too stale for exciting conversation. In the camp we have nothing to fall back upon but our neighbours. We become a sort of moral cannibals—if we do not eat human flesh, we devour human characters. I daresay this is the case in all places where 'gringos' congregate; and yet this is a cheerful, hospitable, friendly neighborhood.

If you were to take a holiday and a run over, Mr. Editor, I should be most happy to show you the lions, tigers, and hyenas of the place, and have no doubt you would be delighted with the trip. In our rounds we should certainly hear how poor Mr. A. was going fast to the dogs, or how Mr. B., with his policy and cunning was not so amiable as Mr. C., with his blunt and honest manliness. We would also, no doubt, be told that Don This was a rogue, and Don That was a fool, while Don Thingumy got tight, and Don Thingumbob was very loose. We are all Dons in South America, at least on Sundays; on Saturdays, I believe, a good many of us become 'Duns.' But all the delightful little-talk would not be confined to the heroic or male portion of the community. We should as certainly hear how Mrs. ——; but I shall say no more. I have got but little hair left on my pate, and I do not want to part with it yet.

If there be nothing in the shape of news, it is pleasing to be able to say that the camps hereabouts are in splendid condition, sheep and other kinds of stock fat. Lambs there are in abundance, and in most of the flocks I have seen they are strong and healthy. For years back there has not been such a capital season.

At present we are enjoying peaceful poverty, I mean with our short commons we are not bothered with soldiers.

MARKET REPORTS.

Abchurch Chambers, London,
March 23, 1868.

Gentlemen,

We last addressed you under date of the 7th inst., and we now send you our latest advices:—

W.S. Ox and Cow Hides—The firmness already reported has continued, and holders have so far succeeded in forcing up prices, that 7d. has been offered and refused in Liverpool for a considerable quantity of Buenos Ayres hides. Early arrivals will doubtless meet with a ready sale at satisfactory prices, but if the saladeros begin to work extensively, and later on send us considerable supplies, we cannot hope that present rates will be supported, especially as the price of the manufactured article will not allow the tanners to work to a profit.

W.S. Horsehides continue firm.

Tallow—During the past fortnight this article has improved 1s. to 1s. 3d. per cwt., and P.Y.C. is now worth 45s. 9d. on the spot. A few hds. and pipes saladero have been sold in Liverpool at 45s. to 46s., and some sales for forward delivery have been made at 45s., which we consider a fair price, and about the value of saladero to-day.

Wool—The London sales are still proceeding, and nearly all the lots offered find buyers. In the last ten days there have been symptoms of sluggishness on the part of buyers, which caused a slight decline, but this has been recovered, and we quote prices fully equal to those obtained in the early part of the sales. River Plate wool is in short supply, and early arrivals will meet with a good market. Still, when the bulk of the clip comes forward, we fear lower prices. There have been a few arrivals at Antwerp, but the wools have not yet been discharged. Our advices lead us to expect a good demand at about the last auction prices. At Havre 2,806 bales were offered on the 20th instant, and 1,899 bales sold, there was good competition, and medium qualities fetched ⅛ per pound advance on late sales.

Sheepskins—No change. The next public sale will be held here about the 15th proximo, but the day has not yet been fixed.

Nutrias—Without change to report.

Hair—A few bales mixed have been sold at 12½d., but this is quite an exceptional price, and cannot be maintained but in the face of very small supplies, and for a few bales at the time.

Liverpool Cotton and Manchester Goods Markets—The cotton market remains firm, although not quite so active. Manufacturers refuse to pay the advanced rates, and there is consequently but little doing in Manchester.

Money Market—The demand has been gradually improving, and now approaches the bank rate; but this may be caused by the usual desire to increase balances towards the end of the quarter. Confidence only makes headway slowly, but we are hopeful of having got over the worst, and look forward to a good business if we are only blessed with a plentiful harvest.

United States—Our advices by letter are to 11th inst. Hides were reported firm, and worth 19¾c. to 20¼c. gold for prime Buenos Ayres. Considerable quantities of domestic wool had been sold at advanced rates, but so far foreign had only participated in the demand to a very limited extent. By the cable we have advices to 21st; gold was 139¼, and Exchange on London 109⅝.

New York, March 19th, 1868.

The market for dry hides continues firm, with considerable enquiry from the trade and out town buyers. The arrivals since my last have been moderately large, leaving the stock slightly increased.

1,000 do. do, 28½ lb. 20c.

8,100 Buenos Ayres and Montevideo kips, part to arrive, 11 to 13¾lb. 22½c.

4,700 Montevideo, 19½ to 22 lb. 19¾ to 20c.

The stock on hand, of all descriptions, is 173,500 Hides. (same time last year 209,000,) as follows:—

156,500 Buenos Ayres.

21,500 Montevideo.

AN INVISIBLE ADVEBTISEMENT.

More than words can say for it, MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER says for itself the moment a bottle is opened. It breathes its own recommendation, and circulates it through the room. You sprinkle it upon your handkerchief and carry with you an inexhaustible bouquet. If your skin is tender what a soothing after shaving as this delicious toilet-water diluted? Used in this way it removes tan, freckles, and all superficial roughness, and in nervous headache and hysterics, its soothing odor acts like a charm. ☞ Purchasers are requested to see that the words FLORIDA WATER MURRAY and LENMAN No. 69 Water Street, New York, are stamped in the glass on each bottle. Without this none is genuine.

National Bonds rose to 45, at which price several sales. A loan of Bonds was soon after made, causing a flatness in prices, which closed at 44½. Sellers are well aware, however, that money is every day becoming more plentiful, and that the public are investing. Thus Bonds must shortly resume their old figure.

Exchange on France done at 5.22.

Money easier. All the smaller Banks now discount as well as the Provincial Bank.

MINERVA COLLEGE.

MADAME FARNESI

Has the honor to inform Parents and Guardians that she has now Opened the above College for Young Ladies upon the plan of the first European Colleges, and has spared neither trouble or expense to have over efficient French and English Governesses, and hopes, with the aid of Masters, to give such a finished education as to do away with the necessity of sending young Ladies to Europe.

Madame FARNESI takes this opportunity to thank her Friends for the kindness and patronage they have shown her, and for the satisfaction they have expressed for her past efforts, she begs to assure them that nothing will be spared in the future to render the education perfect in every respect.

The House is large and airy, with Bathrooms and every comfort and convenience. A Doctor visits the College once a week. Prayers are held daily in separate rooms for the Protestant and Catholic Children, and a minister of each religion visits the College once a week for examination.

The Course of Instruction comprises French, English, and Spanish in all their branches; Geography, Grammar, Sacred and General History; Composition, Literature, Writing, and Arithmetic; Plain and Fancy Work of all kinds.

Every Six Months there is a Public Examination, that Parents may judge of the progress made and the course of studies pursued.

The first Saturday in the Month is a Holiday; and it is earnestly requested that, when possible, Friends will only visit the Pupils on that day or Sunday, to prevent the studies being interrupted.

The only Language allowed to be spoken is French. The greatest attention is paid to their manners and deportment, that they may not only be well-educated, but have the refined and elegant manners of a Lady; and that, if necessary, on leaving the College, they may be able to take their place at the head of the house.

The Elder Pupils who desire it are taught Dressmaking and Housekeeping, without extra charge, a Governess being kept for that purpose.

IMPERIAL PETROLEUM,

IN PATENT TIN CANS.

BRILLIANCY, ECONOMY, SAFETY!

The Undersigned beg to inform the Public that they have received direct from the Proprietors, Messrs. LANMAN & KEMP, NEW YORK, a shipment of the above Celebrated Petroleum Oil, which has established for itself a reputation for excellence surpassing all other Petroleums. The following are some of the qualities possessed by it:—

1st. By a great improvement in Refining, it is freed from the Gaseous Naptha, and will, therefore, stand a higher degree of heat than other Petroleums before Igniting, thus making it much safer; in fact, almost

NON-EXPLOSIVE!

2nd. It is pure white in colour, has scarcely any smell, and is clean and pleasant to handle.

3rd. It has a much greater density or heaviness of body than ordinary Petroleum—a large part of which latter passes off in Gas,—the Imperial Petroleum being Pure Oil will, therefore, with rare exception,

BURN 25 PER CENT. LONGER!

than other Petroleums

4th. The flame from the Imperial Petroleum is a pure white, while nearly all other Petroleums give a yellow opaque flame. On this account, two Lamps burning the Imperial Petroleum will give as much Light as THREE Lamps burning ordinary Petroleum.

5th. It burns clear and steady without flickering, which is a great relief and saving to the eyesight.

6th. It does not Crust in the Wick, and, therefore, requires Trimming but seldom.

7th. The Imperial Petroleum is shipped in Patent Tin Cans, not liable to leak, thus avoiding the loss so often entailed upon the buyer, and being from one vein of Oil, it is always uniform in colour and qualities.

We respectfully ask the attention of Families, Storekeepers, and those who have in charge the Lighting of Schools, Churches, Public Halls, and Street Lamps to this very superior Oil, which, from its SAFETY, ECONOMY, and BRILLIANCY, they will find admirably suited for their various purposes.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE
IS THE
ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.
This invaluable Remedy produces quiet refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and Young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively, using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Neuralgia, Diarrhœa, Rheumatism, Spasms, &c. Important testimonials from numerous medical men accompany each bottle.
CAUTION.—Always ask for "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne," and see that his name is on the Government stamp. Sold in Bottles at 1/1½, 2/9, and 4/6, by all Chemists.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Cangallo--103.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.
The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.
The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.
The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.
The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.
The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.
The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.
The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.
Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.
P.P. MAUA & Co.,
M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.
Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p.%) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.
Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.
Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishe can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.
Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

PURE, SWEET,
COD LIVER OIL.
The most celebrated Chemists and Physicians of all Countries agree in recommending the Oil extracted from the livers of Cod Fish, as being the best remedy that science has yet discovered for the cure of the diseases that affect the THROAT, LUNGS, AND CHEST.
And long continued experiments in the Public Hospitals of Paris, London, New York, and in this country have proved that pure Cod Liver Oil exercises the most beneficial effects on such diseases as SCROFULA AND RHEUMATISM.
The great difficulty heretofore has been to procure an article reliable as to purity. The demand in Europe and America exceeding by many thousands of gallons the entire product of all the Cod Fisheries, in consequence of which unprincipled persons have flooded the markets with Land Oil, Cotton Seed Oil, Linseed Oil, &c., imposing it upon the Public as genuine Cod Liver Oil, greatly to the detriment of health. Our
PURE, SWEET, COD LIVER OIL
Is by special agreement shipped to us by our own Agents, direct from the Fisheries at Newfoundland, and delivered to us under Seal in our Store in New York. At various times, during the last five years, we have submitted our Cod Liver Oil to the SEVEREST CHEMICAL TESTS,
Made by the first Physicians and Chemists in Cuba, Mexico, Peru, Chile, Rio de Janeiro, &c., who have unanimously declared it to be the purest and best article of the kind ever tested by them, and that it contains
IODINE IN GREATER ABUNDANCE
Than any other Oil they had seen, and this being the life-giving property in all Cod Liver Oils, it becomes evident that the sick will find in ours a more reliable remedy than in any other.
To hasten the cure of all throat, lung, and Chest Diseases, our
KEMP'S PECTORAL OF ANACAHUITA
Should be used along with the Oil, as they are prepared so as to act in complete harmony together.

BISHOP'S
GRANULAR
EFFERVESCENT CITRATE OF MAGNESIA
INTRODUCED AND PREPARED BY ALFRED BISHOP, MANUFACTURING CHEMIST
17 & 18, Speck's Fields, Mile End New Town
LONDON.
This perfectly white and dedicately clean granulated preparation possesses remarkable effervescent qualities, which far surpass the ordinary Seidlitz Powder in its cooling, refreshing, and mild aperient properties, as well as in its flavour as a saline draught. It is particularly well adapted for women and young children, on account of its most agreeable flavour and mild effect.
N.B.—The genuine has the name BISHOP upon the Bottle, also the Name and Trade Mark upon the Label, and is sold in convenient sizes, and secured in so perfect a manner that it may be shipped with safety to any part of the world.
Manufacturer also of Granulated and Effervescent Carbonate of Iron, Citrate of Iron, Citrate of Quinine, and Iron, Carbonate of Lithia in Tubes, Citrate of Lithia, Vichy Salt, Seidlits Mixture, and all other Granulated preparations.
Inchiancery.—Caution.—Bishop's Granular Effervescent Citrate of Magnesia.—Mr. Bishop, having discovered that the Label which he as used for the last five years was being imitated, recently applied to the Court of Chancery for an Injunction to restrain such imitation. The Injunction was immediately granted, and the Defendant was ordered to pay all Mr. Bishop's Costs and destroy the Labels complained of, also Bishop's New Remedy for Sea Sickness should be in the hands of every person travelling by Sea. 225 28p m27 1f p

THE ACME OF MEDICAL SCIENCE
IS ACHIEVED IN THE WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF NEW MEDICAL PRINCIPLES IN
DR. RADWAY'S
PERFECT PURGATIVE PILLS
COATED WITH SWEET GUM.
1st Principle—A vegetable substitute for Calomel or Mercury is secured.
2d. A cathartic that cleanses the alimentary Canal and its neighboring Viscera as thoroughly as Lobelia does the stomach.
3d. Functional Harmony is secured to the secreting vessels of all the organs and glands in the system.
4th. Purification and equalization of the circulation of the blood.
5th. The properties of these Pills communicate a nutritious principle to the blood and reparative secretion.s
6th. A great want is supplied in their soothing, healing and expulsive power in cases of intestinal ulceration, as in Eruptive Fevers, where a cure depends upon free evacuations.
7th. The aged and persons suffering from paralysis of the bowels, by the use of one pill per day, secure regularity.
Persons suffering with any disturbance of the secretary organs, or that have difficulty in discharging the contents of the bowels, or that are in the habit of taking Pills or opening medicines, should try one box of these truly excellent Pills. The happiness of their effects on the system, and the satisfactory evidence one box will give you of their wonderful curative powers, will convince you that your faith and trust in them will become firmly established.

RADWAY'S
REGULATING PILLS.
A newly discovered principle in vegetable medication is securred in Radway's Regulating Pill, that places them far in advance of all other Purgative or Cathartic, Aparient or Sedative, and Anti-Bilious Medicine. They are the only vegetable substitute for Calomel or mercury known; the only Medicine that, during their process of purging, imparts nutriment to the debilitated system, and strengh, vigor and purity to the blood, and impaired secretions; the only purgative that will cleanse the Alimentary Canal and obstructed intestine as quickly and thoroughly, without weakening or nouseating the patient, as Lobelia (the most active and thorough emetic of the herbist) will the stomach, and the only purgative at present known safe to administer in case of Small Pox, Yellow Fever, Erysipelas, and other Malignant Fevers, that inflame and ulcerate the mucuous membranes of the Bowels, Stomach, &c.

THE PROPERTIES OF:
DR. RADWAY'S PILLS.
They equalize the circulation, Purify the Blood, and Purge Corrupt and Acrimonious Humors, and retained deposits from the system in six hours.
AS A CATHARTIC, the increase, when suspended, the peroitaltic movement of the bowels, and promote a quick evacuation of its contents. Their influence is extended throughout the system, purging the retained deposits in the stomach, into the duodenum, stimulating the secretory ducts of the pancreas and liver, in the promotion and increase of the flow of bile and pancreatic fields.
PURGATIVES of common aloes exert their action on the colon and rectum by irritation of the mucuos membrane, without influencing the liver or its secretions. Such cathartics are unsafe in pills for general use. The common Cathartic Pills, that induce drastic liquid discharges, should never be given in cases of inflammation, or when there is ulceration of the intestinal canal.
THE APERIENT and mild LAXITIVE properties of RADWAY'S PILLS are the best safeguard in these disorders, and in all cases of eruptions and malignant fevers their balsamic, healing and soothing properties protect the coats of the alimentary passage against the irritant and acrid humors of the faucos.
THE NUTRITIOUS AND TONIC properties of these Pills are of great service in depleting fevers and uterine discharges, likewise as a dinner pill, to increase the appetite and promote digestion.
THEIR SEDATIVE properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach and bowels, either from inflamation, colic, flatulence, wind, cramps, &c.
THEIR COUNTER IRRITANT influence extends throughout the system where there is inflamation, congestion or irritation, stimulating the blood and nervous fluids in the congested vessels, and equalizing its circulation. The principle of Counter irritations is generally applied to external remedies. Its application, internally, in the form of a purgative medicine, exemplified in Radway's Pills, has proved a wonderful curative principle, readily withdrawing from the blood and fluids their acrid and irritating humors.
AS DIAPHORETICS OR SUDORIFICS they stimulate the secretions of the skin, induce exhalation of obstructed perspiration.
THEIR DIURETIC properties act on the kidneys, correcting and regulating the flow of urine.
THEIR ANTI-BILIOUS properties stimulate the liver in the secretion of bile, and its discharge through the biliary ducts. In all cases of Headache, Jaundice, Bilious Attacks, Saffrom-colored Skins, Impaired Digestion, caused by the overflow of bile and its mixing with the blood, these pills, in
